

Maths Educational Software Interest Group Symposium
Friday 18th December 2015
CARMA Centre, University of Newcastle

Possible themes/questions:

- What's available?
- What can the various systems do?
- How difficult is it to program and maintain the various software systems?
- Do students learn (differently) using software?

Our program:

Time	Speaker	Topic
10:00-10:20	Welcome morning tea
10:20-10:40	Jonathan Kress/Chi Mak/Daniel Mansfield	MapleTA at UNSW for teaching and exams
10:40-11:00	Leon Poladian/ David Ivers	MapleTA at Sydney
11:00-11:20	Stuart Johnson	MapleTA at Adelaide
11:20-11:40	Matt Skerritt	MapleTA – stability MapleTA – using for a higher level course
11:40-12:00	Bill Blythe	MapleTA – advanced
12:00-12:30	Lunch break
12:30-12:50	Agnes Boskovitz/Griffith Ware	WebAssign at ANU
12:50-13:10	Björn Ruffer	WebAssign at Newcastle
13:10-13:30	TBA	TBA
13:30-13:50	Ben Brawn	Numbas (created by UK University of Newcastle)
13:50-14:10	Ben Brawn	MAA Webwork and STACK
14:10-14:30	Anthony Morphett	Applets
14:30-14:50	Ljiljana Brankovic	GrInvln (Graph Invariant Investigators) developed at Ghent Uni
14:50-15:00	Afternoon tea break
15:00-15:30	ALL speakers	Panel forum on all systems